TASTING NOTES

beer AND cider

TUCKERBOX CRAFT APPLE CIDER

Like his counterpart on the Tuckerbox, Rusty the Jack Russell terrier waited eagerly to greet visitors to Borambola Homestead. His luck run out before his master's when he met an 18 wheeler while chasing a bitch. His predecessor Spot now stands guard in his place.

BREWERS NOTES

Sparkling clean air and crisp sweet apples, this cider is a 100% natural. Fermented using only freshly crushed whole apples from Orange New South Wales is what makes the Tuckerbox Cider so special.

Colour - Tuckerbox is a golden honey colour

Nose - The Tuckerbox cider has a nice eating apple fruit fragrance of Royal Galas, Red Delicious and Fuji's with a hint of Granny Smith to finish. Musk and perfume

Palate - A fresh easy drinking sessionable cider with good flavour, clean and crisp, and medium dry on the finish

TUCKERBOX HOPPY LAGER BEER

Like his counterpart on the tuckerbox, Rusty the Jack Russell terrier waited eagerly to greet visitors to Borambola Homestead. His luck run out before his master's when he met an 18 wheeler while chasing a bitch. His predecessor Spot now stands guard in his place.

BREWERS NOTES

The beer is inspired by Australia's rich brewing history using the finest quality ingredients to produce a full-flavoured beer and a palate finish that is refreshingly long and clean.

Tuckerbox is brewed with 100% Australian malted barley. 98% Pilsner malt, 2% Crystal malt. Bittering is achieved using New Zealand Super-Alpha hops imparting a clean bitterness at 20 IBU. Whilst the late hop character is achieved by dry hopping with US Cascade directly into the maturation vessel after fermentation for flavour & aroma contributions. Fermented with a German Lager yeast strain.

Colour - Tuckerbox is a golden honey colour

Nose - This clean drinking golden lager balances slight malt sweetness with medium bitterness and a citrus floral aroma

Palate - A small percentage of crystal malt is used in the mash to darken the colour and provide a fuller palate

CHEMICAL ANALYSIS

Alcohol: 4.8% v/v
